

Sālih (‘alayhi s-salām)

The background of the entire image is a detailed, artistic rendering of a wood grain. The lines are wavy and organic, with various shades of brown and tan, creating a natural, textured appearance. The grain runs horizontally across the frame.

The Story of Sāliḥ (‘alayhi s-salām)

Today you will learn about the life of one of the best people that ever lived. This was a man sent by Allāh. You will learn why they were sent and what lessons we can learn from their lives. They were known as the Prophets of Allāh.

The Family of Thamūd

Another family from the children of Nūḥ (‘alayhi s-salām) were the family of Thamūd. They came after the family of ‘Ād.

They also worshipped statues like the family of ‘Ād did.

Allāh made them very strong. They could build houses in mountains with their own hands!

Allāh gave them a lot of things. But instead of being grateful and listening to Allāh, they were ungrateful.

Sending a Prophet

Allāh wanted to remind them of what was right. He sent to them a Prophet. He was a man from them. His name was Sāliḥ (‘alayhi s-salām).

He called them to worship only Allāh alone. He begged them to stop worshipping statues.

Only some people from the family of Thamūd listened. The bad people told Sāliḥ (‘alayhi s-salām) that if he did not stop, they would kill him.

Sāliḥ (‘alayhi s-salām) did not give up. He tried his best to make them good and listen to Allāh. He reminded them of everything Allāh had given them. He told them not to be ungrateful.

Be Grateful!

The Challenge

They called Sāliḥ (‘alayhi s-salām) a liar and a fool. They told him to prove that he was a real Prophet.

They said that they will only believe him if he took a She-Camel out of a mountain! Sāliḥ (‘alayhi s-salām) asked Allāh to help him.

We should always ask Allāh to help us. It is only Allāh who can do everything. Even if something might be really easy, if Allāh wants he can make it really hard. And if something is really hard or even impossible, then Allāh can make it easy and possible. We should always remember that Allāh has the power to do everything.

The She-Camel

So Sāliḥ (‘alayhi s-salām) asked to Allāh for help. Allāh helped him and a She-Camel came out of the mountain. He told the people that the She-Camel was very special because it was a sign from Allāh. He told them to treat the She-Camel in a good way and not to hurt it. They still did not believe Sāliḥ (‘alayhi s-salām) and carried on being bad.

The Evil Plan

They chose a person and made a plan to kill the She-Camel. When they killed the She-Camel, Sāliḥ (‘alayhi s-salām) was very upset. He told them that in three days, the punishment of Allāh was going to come. Instead of becoming good and asking Allāh to forgive them, they made another evil plan.

Nine people got together and went to the house of Sāliḥ (‘alayhi s-salām).

The Punishment

Before they were able to kill Sāliḥ (‘alayhi s-salām), the punishment had come. When the fourth day came, they all waited to see if anything would happen. All of a sudden, there was a really loud noise. The whole earth started to shake and rumble. All the bad people had been killed. Only Sāliḥ (‘alayhi s-salām) and the good people were saved.

The End

Lessons from the Story of Sālih (‘alayhi s-salām)

- We must remember some very important lessons from the story of Sālih (‘alayhi s-salām):
- We should always remember that everything we have is from Allāh and we should never think we are the most powerful.
- We should respect the signs of Allah and respect them. The She-Camel was a sign of Allāh for the people of Thamūd.

For us, the sign from Allāh is the Qur'an. We must respect the Qur'an by:

1. Reading it all the time.
2. Understanding what the Qur'an is saying to us.
3. Doing everything the Qur'an tells us to do.
4. Only touch it when we have wudhu.
5. Keep the Qur'an in a high and clean place.
